Saturday, April 1, 2017

9:30-4:00

Reagan Brasch, Violin

Music Center of the Northwest once again will host a one day workshop for Suzuki Violin students, level Pre-Twinkle to Book 5. A fun and full day of group classes, music activities, parent education, making new friends and seeing old ones. Students will leave feeling inspired and motivated. Parents will enjoy the discussion session with Reagan and watching their student perform with the group in the final recital.

Register through Music Center of the Northwest by calling 206-526-8443 or register online at mcnw.org.

If you don't see the online registration, please check back as it will be made available soon.

Open to all area Suzuki Violin students

Enrollment is limited so register early to secure a spot

Tuition $60/student.

For very young students, age 3-5, a half day option is available for $40.

Bring your own brown bag lunch. Juice and snacks will be provided.
